

Flytech News

Date: 05/22/07 by Dennis Liu PM Dept.

Out of hundreds of candidates, Flytech has just outperformed to the peers winning the Best Choice of COMPUTEX TAIPEI 2007 Award in category IPC with a new launched Industrial Panel PC, K875. It's a slim type 15" interactive touch panel PC designed with diversified mounting structure and rich IO for meeting a variety of application needs.

Key Features

1. Ultra slim 65 mm thickness and 5 kg weight obsoletes traditional cumbersome Panel PC.
2. Flat and high brightness panel, NEMA 3 / IP55 dust and water proof display front.
3. Rich I/O ports support wide range of connectivity
4. Featured with motion detection and IrDA remote data transmission, the application of self-service Kiosk is more than competent.
5. Main board sled and HDD access door form the tool-free way of maintenance while minimize mean time to repair before driving down service cost to the lowest
6. Various mounting kits fit different installation requirements.
7. Low power consumption platform provides itself with high reliability.

Scanner, thermal printer, finger-print module, 3.5" motorized card reader, and 3-tracked MSR are standard option devices for integrating the business hardware solution into a completion meeting retail/hospitality commercial, industrial, and medical application needs.

The product has been qualified by demanding market leaders in quality and reliability for securing the product owners with the highest satisfaction.